INSPIRED BY THE SPIRIT OF MARY WARD

MARY WARD'S LEGACY: A VISIONARY FOR ALL AGES

Born on January 23, 1585, in Northern England during a time of Catholic persecution, Mary Ward defied societal constraints with an unwavering mission: to educate women and girls, empowering them to embrace their God-given potential. Her profound belief in the dignity and worth of women inspired her groundbreaking motto, “Women can do much,” which continues to resonate in both the Church and society today.

Mary Ward's vision, rooted in faith and courage, extends beyond her time. Through the Congregation of Jesus and the Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary—known as Loreto Mary Ward—her legacy flourishes, fostering an inclusive education that nurtures the mind, spirit, and heart. Her enduring influence lights the way for learners of all backgrounds, inspiring them to achieve greatness and transform the world around them.

At Loreto, Mary Ward's legacy is our foundation and our guiding light.

Her vision inspires us to create a school environment where faith, compassion, and academic excellence converge. We strive to empower each learner to realize their unique potential, embrace challenges, and make a meaningful impact on the world. At Loreto, we live her values every day, shaping a community of purpose-driven individuals ready to lead with integrity and serve with love

WHY CHOOSE LORETO EDUCATION?

At Loreto, we believe that education is more than just academics - it's about nurturing well-rounded individuals who are curious, confident, and compassionate.

Here's why a Loreto education stands out:

Learn Through Play

We understand that play is a powerful tool for learning. At Loreto, our youngest learners engage in hands-on, play-based activities that spark creativity, curiosity, and critical thinking. This approach helps build foundational skills in a joyful and stimulating environment, fostering a lifelong love of learning.
